'round town

with Betty Allen...

Have you noticed the flowering of straw hats around town? . . . the men's I mean. . . . Dr. Paul Werthmann's new sign. . . the precious lumber that finally arrived for Lloyd Nelson's store . . . how agreeable all the political candidates are. . . .

The interest shown in the letters to the editor discussing the school bond issue has been very gratifying. A great many people have expressed a desire to be fully informed on the subject and it is to be hoped that it is an indication of a heavy and thoughful vote at the polls tomorrow.

Built by the kindergarten children at the grammar school, their playhouse is worth a trip to see. The youngsters did all the work, using empty box crates, cardboard and any available material. Most of the construction work was done by the boys with the girls taking over the interior decoration. Each detail is complete and the touch I liked best was a pair of "father's" shoes under the bed.

Another reason for incorporating is the increasing heavy schedule of the County Planning Commission. A wait of several months is sometimes necessary before some vital matter can be considered.

Mrs. R. C. Page distinguished herself on La Rinconada golf course the other day. She was playing with Mrs. A. A. Dempsey and while waiting for her golfing partner to swing, noticed a gopher pop up nearby and survey the scene. An ardent gardner, Mrs. Page is a gopher-hater of the first water. She began to toy with the idea of swinging her club at the animal when to her astonishment another gopher popped up right by his companion. She took a deep breath, let go with a swing and annihilated two gophers with one swing!

By AL CARTER

Last Sunday afternoon the Campbell American Legion baseball team defeated a local team composed of former high school players by a score of 4-0. Sunday, May 26, the Legion team will meet the strong San Jose Cardinals at Graham Field in San Jose at 2:30 p. m. The Cardinals are made up of Mexican boys who have had high school and college baseball experience. The game will be the first real test for the Legion team. Vote Is Light For School Trustees

In the only school election in the district to boast a large vote, Mrs. George C. Payne defeated Fred Smith for trustee of the Moreland school. This election, the only contested one in the district, polled a vote of 123 with several absentee ballots yet to be received. Mrs. Payne won her re-election by a count of 76 as against Smith's 47 votes.

At the Cambrian Elementary school, Earl Gripenstraw won over three other contestants in a write-in which had a total vote of 45. He will replace Horace Nelson who did not file for re-election.

A light vote characterized the other school elections in which all of the trustees running for re-election were voted in. E. L. Farnham received a complimentary vote of 93 in the Campbell Grammar school election and both John D. Blaine and William Lloyd were re-elected at the high school.

In the Union district, with a light vote of only 14, Rudolph Mirassou was unopposed for re-election.

Chamber Discusses Variety Of Subjects

Although the attendance was meager at last week's Chamber of Commerce meeting, those members who were present discussed at length a variety of matters concerning Campbell. Among them was the petition now before the Planning Commission for the widening of Campbell Ave.

A committee appointed to work on the zoning problem reported that progress is being made toward petitioning for industrial zoning in areas near the railroad. In connection with this, the Chamber officially sponsored the zoning district proposed by the Campbell Taxpayers' Association.

It was reported that a new bus schedule will go into effect May 24 and that by June 1, two new busses will be added to the line by Peerless Stages Inc.

The school bond election was discussed but no official action taken.

In discussing the matter of incorporation, it was decided to have a committee from the Taxpayers' Association set tentative boundaries for proposed incorporated area so that the matter may be taken up by the group in a more definite form.

Teaching Staff Changes

There will be several faces missing at the Campbell Grammar school next fall and some new ones in their places. Missing will be Paul Becker, Mrs. Paul Becker, Mrs. Mary Livingston, Miss Wilma Bothwell, Miss Christel Schneider and Miss Anna May Diffin, all of whom have resigned. Two other teachers, at present on leave of absence, have sent their resignations to the school board. They are Miss Patricia Matranga and Miss Ruby Anderson.

They will be replaced at the beginning of the new semester by Calvin Roll, a recently discharged veteran whose home is in Santa Clara; Miss Lauretta Brehmer, a San Jose State College graduate; Miss Laura Blaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blaine, who has been teaching in Gilroy; and four other San Jose State graduates, Miss Marjorie Carlstrom, Miss Jeanne Hort, Mrs. Margaret Lyons and Miss Genevieve Gallagher.

Campbell To Have Modern Theater Building

As part of the Sunny-Mount Theaters' $500,000 expansion program, a new theater is planned for Campbell to be built as soon as a suitable site is purchased and building restrictions are lifted.

Los Gatos, Mountain View and Sunnyvale are also to be included in the program, with a $250,000 building planned for Mountain View which will have 1500 seats. Los Gatos will have a theater with a seating capacity of 1000, and Sunnyvale's will seat 1200.

According to Vern Balcon, manager of the Campbell Theater, the new edifice planned for this community will seat 900, an increase of 400 over the present building. He estimates the cost at approximately $250,000.

Purchase of a location is expected in the near future.

San Tomas Gets Zone Change

A temporary zoning order from the County Board of Supervisors has been secured by board members of the San Tomas Improvement Club to prohibit further undesirable buildings, trailer camps and commercial enterprises in the San Tomas district. A hearing on a permanent zoning order cannot be scheduled for three or four months due to previously arranged hearings.

Members of the San Tomas Improvement Club will hold their first meeting tonight at 7:30 at the home of R. R. Trewin. Purpose of the organization, according to R. R. Trewin, is the improvement and betterment of the district including road repairs and the posting of road signs.

Serving as president is R. R. Trewin with A. S. Robertson as vice-president, and H. Schulz as secretary-treasurer. Board members of the newly-organized group are H. G. Blohm, E. B. Taylor, J. A. Schneider, Otto Hansen, J. R. Woods, K. P. Farley, Fred Smith, R. Herschbach and H. Waters.

Cancer Drive Is Completed

Santa Clara County is sufficiently concerned about the need for research and clinics to cut down the cancer death toll that it has raised $12,863 for the American Cancer Society's program.

Campbell, with Mr. Wilbur Mitchell as chairman, raised $313.12 and is to be complimented on his fine work by the officers of the American Cancer Society. The quota was $200 to be raised by solicitation, schools, cans and theaters.

The county quota was approximately $18,000 and it has been generously oversubscribed to assist in the $854,000 State quota. To date the State quota raised has been slightly over $500,000.

This is how the money will be spent: Forty per cent will be spent nationally on a great coordinated program of research under the guidance of The National Research Council. Sixty per cent of the money collected in each State will be retained within that State for preventive education, and to assist in providing you and your neighbors with more and better hospital facilities in order to save thousands from death by cancer, such as: Examination centers where you can go to make sure you are free of concer; X-ray equipment and radium; hospitalization for treatment and surgery; education of the public as to danger signals, and visiting nurse service and transportation.

Plane Crash Victim Recovering

Lt. J. Hugh Rincon, member of the Campbell Legion post and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Peck, S. First St., who was the navigator on the ill-fated B-17 from Clovis, New Mexico, which crashed in Marin County last Thursday, is recovering at Letterman Hospital in San Francsico.

He was en route to visit his wife, who has been making her home with her parents here. Two men were killed in the crash and one died later. The pilot and co-pilot displayed remarkable heroism and stamina by walking four miles to get help for the injured.

The accident occurred at 2 a. m. and help reached the injured by 5 a. m. At 2 p. m. the following day they were admitted to Letterman Hospital.

Lt. Rincon, who received bad cuts and bruises and was in a condition of severe shock, has served in the South and Central Pacific with the 7th Air Force and was in England with the 8th Air Force on V-E Day. He has a Presidential citation, an air medal, the Distinguished Flying Cross, European and Pacific theater ribbons and several oak leaf clusters.

At the time of the accident Lt. Rincon's wife, accompanied by her mother, had gone to San Francisco to await the expected arrival of her baby.

On Sunday Lt. Rincon was visited by his father-in-law and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kanel and their son, Richard.

Campbell Man Gets Croix de Guerre

A Campbell man has just received the French Croix de Guerre "for exceptional services rendered during the operations for the liberation of France."

He is Kaleb W. Borg, son of Kaleb L. Borg, up to last November, staff sergeant Battery B, 411 Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion.

Borg was in the Army for three and one-half years before his discharge last fall. During that period he accumulated five battle stars. He landed in France with his captain on the second day of the invasion, three days ahead of the rest of their battalion. Their job was to reconnoiter to determine where their guns might be most advantageously placed. Borg was one of four in his battalion to whom the award was made.

The young ex-service man expects to resume studies in engineering at San Jose State College in the fall, and in the meantime is brushing up on math at the Adult Center. At State he was a member of the varsity basketball team.

A brother, Paul L. Borg, is a lieutenant in the Navy, and has been stationed in San Francisco since his return last fall from the South Pacific.

A new restaurant will open about June 1 on Winchester Road just south of Campbell Ave. F. H. Hoxie of San Jose has leased the property and will operate a soda fountain and short order restaurant. He plans on calling the new place "The One Stop" because of its proximity to three filling stations. Customers will be able to obtain gas and oil while eating.

"The One Stop" will remain open all night, every night, as well as every day and car service will be furnished.

At present the building is being completely redecorated inside and out and new equipment will be installed soon in addition to a new 30-foot counter.

Dalzells Have Surprise

By E. RIBBLE

Car after car drew to a stop just across the Campbell Avenue bridge Saturday night, dimmed lights and then little groups gatheerd and whisperd form car to car, all of which drew suspicious glances from other passing motorists. Slowly the caravan formed and turned off into Page Street, thence down Maple and as it rounded into Poplar, a din of auto horns, beating of tin pans and blowing of trumpets brought nearby residents to windows and doors.

The evening paper was dropped in more than one home as curtains were raised or doors opened to learn the cause of such a clamor. All homes there being new, some suspicion of a surprise party or house warming was noted as more than one newcomer to the tract waved at the passing cars, either hopeful or fearful of an inrush of guests. At the third house the noisemakers halted, tumbled out of cars and headed for the Dalzell home, where the youngest member of the family stood on the front porch, calling friendly greetings to the new arrivals.

Caught completely by surprise, Mr. and Mrs. Dalzell and two sons rose to the occasion and soon had comfortable accommodations for the thirty-odd friends who gathered to give them an old-time house warming. Laden with good things to eat the womenfolk retired to the kitchen to unload their home-made eatables, while the men of the party lugged in a goodly sized box containing a fine fireplace set which was presented the new home.

The evening was pleasantly spent in playing yap, inspecting the new home and visiting. Those present for the occasion were: Messrs. and Madames F. J. Kincaid, H. Binley, L. Means, J. Hiatt, J. Homen, A. E. Chaffee, A. S. Chaffee, J. Rose, S. Edmonds, B. Davis, D. Ribble, C. Kohrs, E. Furtado, B. Steindorf, G. Robinson, F. Day, J. George, H. Mathieson, and Mrs. Goodro.

Thomas G. Graham Is Candidate for Sheriff

Thomas G. Graham, lifelong resident of Santa Clara County, is actively campaigning for the office of sheriff.

Graham was born and reared in Santa Clara, California, the son of the late T. F. Graham and the late Pearl George Graham, who like their son, were also born in the city of Santa Clara. The elder Graham was employed by the Pacific Manufacturing Company in the city for a period of 32 years. He later became the head of the California State Employment Office in the city of San Jose, which post he held for a 25 year period.

Thomas Graham received his early education in the Santa Clara Grammar school and later attended the Santa Clara University Prep school.

While Graham was employed by the Associated Oil Company as a salesman, he was approached by the later sheriff, George W. Lyle, and offered a position as deputy sheriff to fill a vacancy created by the death of Harry Martin. Graham accepted and thus began his career as a peace officer. After serving in this capacity for four years the abilities of young Graham were called to the attention of United States Senator Samuel Shortridge, who prevailed upon him to take a position as United States Deputy Marshall for the Northern California district. In this capacity young Graham served eight years under Fred Esola and George Vise, who is the present marshall in charge of the Northern California district.

In further recognition of Graham's ability as a peace officer, he was appointed under-sheriff of Santa Clara County in 1938, in which capacity he is still serving.

The House of Riches is going to specialize in party favors and when I was there a table decoration for a bride's shower was just completed. It was a complete reproduction of a wedding scene. The bride and her attendants were white lacy dreams (paper doilies) and carried beautiful miniature bouquets. The bridegroom and ushers were very real and solemn and stood very erect on their black paper feet. There was even a pipe organ behind the altar.

Just completed is the new driveway which rircles in front of The Dresser Drawer, making shopping there a leisurely pleasure. They have some new slack suits—just arrived and they're for boys and girls both. A California made product, they are styled by Irene of Hollywood and they definitely have that playtime touch that only California clothes seem to have. The slacks come in solid colors—yellow, red or blue and the tops are Walt Disney prints which your youngsters will love.

A practical device which will appeal to any housewife is the Welmaid folding clothes basket which the Campbell Hardware Co. carries. It's made sufficiently high to eliminate stooping and has two pockets for clothes pins. It can also be used as a clothes hamper and is perfect as a catcher while ironing for curtains, sheets and such.

Perfect to slip on for cool summer evenings or in the morning, are the knitted jackets just arrived at Rachels. They have a hand-knitted look and come in blue, white, yellow and red. Oh yes, they have short sleeves, too.

The What Not has just received their first English imports since the war and they seem especially lovely after their long absence. There's some Tobey jugs, delightful in their absurdity, and as beautifully made as ever. There are several Dicken's characters including our pet Micawber . . . there's a Sir Walter Raleigh, Disraeli, and even Sarah Gamp. Pink luster pitchers were included in the shipment and their fragile loveliness is hard to describe. For Father's Day you might keep in mind the cigarette boxes with two matching ash trays. They're made by Lancaster Ltd., and decorated with English scenes . . . most masculine.

A new item at Clark's Drugs is the Daggett and Ramsdell travel charm kit. It's an attractive one, perfect for traveling and in an emergency could double as a hand-bag. In it are cleansing cream, skin lotion, hand lotion, face powder, lipstick and rouge.

Kilmartin Seeks Coroner's Job

Tom Kilmartin, present chief deputy coroner and candidate for Coroner and Public Administrator of Santa Clara County in the June 4 primary election, was in Campbell this week, renewing old acquaintances and discussing his campaign activities with local civic leaders and friends.

"The Coroner and Public Administrator fills two very important jobs," stated Kilmartin. "As Coroner he must investigate every county death occurring under circumstances other than natural. It is his duty to see that persons guilty of causing the death of another person through negligence or with criminal intent are held to answer in court proceedings.

"With the splendid cooperation of local police authorities, the county sheriff's office and the State highway patrol this work is being carried on in a most satisfactory manner at the present time," Kilmartin added.

"The Public Administrator handles estates which through legal processes come into his office for probate and proper disposition to the rightful heirs. It is his duty to see that these estates are protected from attack from persons not rightfully having claim to them."

Kilmartin feels that his many years of experience as the head of a successful business, and his close contact with county and civic groups, plus his present duties as chief deputy coroner, qualify him for this office.

Kilmartin, a resident of Santa Clara County for 38 years, is the only candidate for this office who is now employed by the coroner's office. This is the first time he has sought public office, he said during his visit.

Made Campbell Area Chairman for Warren

Niel Sellers today was appointed Campbell area chairman for the Warren for Governor committee by Michael L. Blanchfield, Santa Clara County chairman.

In accepting the appointment, Sellers stated, "I am for Earl Warren not only because of his excellent record in administration of this State, but because of his reorganization and broadening of the Department of Veterans Affairs to co-ordinate all veterans programs in an effort to eliminate red tape and reduce confusion."

Sellers, who resides at 84 N. Milton, Campbell, is senior vice-commander of the Regular Veterans Association, and regional director of District VII of the California State Employees Association.

He is physical therapy technician at the Agnew State Hospital.

San Francisco Gets Air Freight Terminal

"San Francisco was selected because it is the heart of California's agricultural producing areas and is a great consumer market for Middlewestern and Atlantic Seaboard products."

Such was the statement of Emil Slick, president of a flying freight organization made up of war veterans, in announcing the establishment of the line's Pacific Coast operational terminal at San Francisco Airport. One specialty of the air line will be flying vegetables and flowers grown in Northern and Central California to Eastern markets.

New Post Office Employee

The Empty Silo and Feed Shortage

Many silos have stood empty during the war years because of the labor shortage on farms. These empty silos offer a way of relieving the present feed shortage, M. S. Beckley of the local Agricultural Extension Service tells us.

Silage can be produced to advantage in Santa Clara County, Mr. Beckley says, and silage crops planted in the next few weeks offer opportunities to increase the roughage feed supply for the coming winter.

Many types of silage crops are suggested by the Agricultural Extension Service.. Corn and sweet sorghums are generally grown for this purpose. It is sometimes desirable to use first-cutting alfalfa for silage, especially if it has rained on the alfalfa or if it contains weeds.

Silage crops should be harvested when the time is right to get the maximum feed value. The assistant farm adviser says the local Extension office will advise farmers as to the best crops to be grown for silage in Santa Clara County, and also as to the proper time and methods of harvesting silage crops to secure maximum results.

4-H Club members of Santa Clara County will have field corn test plots out to find the best hybrid strain of this county. Miss Bernice Boggs of the Morgan Hill 4-H Club will have an acre of three strains of corn for the much needed feed this fall.

DDT for Fly Control

DDT is a relatively safe and effective means of controlling houseflies, stable flies, and horn flies on dairy and range cattle if it is used in a water suspension spray.

"It is recommended that animals be sprayed with a water suspension made from a wettable powder and containing 2.5 per cent actual DDT," says James R. Douglas, assistant professor of parasitology, University of California. "A number of wettable preparations of this type are available commercially which contain from 25 to 50 per cent DDT.

"For example, if a 50 per cent DDT powder is employed, four pounds should be mixed with ten gallons of water to give a 2.5 per cent suspension. This amount will be sufficient to treat 30 to 40 cattle. The spray should be applied to the animal with a rather course spray, using a sufficient amount to insure a thorough wetting, usually from two to three pinte per head. It will be necessary to agitate the spray material to prevent clogging of the nozzle and insure even distribution."

The first application will give 10 to 14 days protection and a second application about 21 days protection, depending upon weather factors.

Any program of fly control should include, in addition to treatment of the animals, spraying of barns and other buildings attractive to flies and elimination of sources of reinfestation as far as possible.

Solutions and emulsions of DDT in oil are not recommended for application to animals because of the possibility of absorption through the skin. It should be constantly borne in mind that DDT is toxic to warm blooded animals and should not be applied carelessly or indiscriminately. Contact with food or food containers should be avoided.

Get the Most From Your Vegetables

If we are all gardening this year . . . and that's a good idea . . . we are going to have plenty of fresh vegetables out of the home garden. We'll all be better off for that, too.

But there is a great deal to know about the preparation and cooking of vegetables for the table after they come from the garden. Winifred Jecker, home demonstration agent, says if the vegetables are to be acceptable and appealing to the family, they should keep their bright colors when cooked or have them enhanced, they should have texture that is good to bite into, an odor that isn't too strong. It's most important that they have the full flavor of fresh vegetables.

So much for appeal. The home demonstration agent says they should also retain their full quota of minerals and vitamins when cooked . . . and without too much work for the cook, who is usually the busy mother in the family.

Now, if you are interested in doing the best with your vegetable cookery, you'll want a circular of the Agricultural Extension Service, University of California. It's called Saving Food Values, III. It has a section devoted to handling and storing of foods and one on preparing and cooking foods. This circular was prepared by Hilda Faust and Vera Greaves Mrak, nutrition specialists of the Extension Service. Homemakers may have a copy by requesting it from the home demonstration agent at the Extension office, 201 Post Office Building, San Jose, or call Columbia 3866.

IS THE P.A.C. DELIBERATELY TRYING TO DECEIVE THE VOTERS?

The Political Action Committee has publicly announced that Congressman Jack Anderson's voting record is bad. But has the P.A.C. told the voters that its own selfish aim is to control Congress—and that any congressman who stands in its way is automatically bad?

Has the P.A.C. told the voters that it can only find 5 issues out of over 800 roll call votes to criticize giving Anderson a 99% record of good votes?

Has the P.A.C. told you that it will gladly stoop to misleading half truths in its power-hungry struggle for control of Congress. Of course it hasn't. But since this is your government and you deserve to know all the facts, here are the very issues the P.A.C. criticizes so severely. Would you have voted differently in a single instance?

THE ISSUE . . . EXTENSION OF THE OPA

The P.A.C. says . . . he was wrong!
The Voters say . . . he was RIGHT!

In an attempt to blacken Congressman Anderson's record the P.A.C. says he voted against extension of the O.P.A. That's a deliberate falsehood. Jack Anderson voted to extend O.P.A. to March 31, 1947. He has done everything he could to make O.P.A. effective. He voted against BLACK MARKETS and for amendments which would return butter, nylon stockings, lumber and building materials. Rent control was not touched.

THE ISSUE . . . ARMING MERCHANT SHIPS

The P.A.C. says . . . he was wrong!
The Voters say . . . he was RIGHT!

It's a shame the P.A.C. has to go back 5 years to find fault with Congressman Anderson's record. Particularly, when the voters have twice re-elected him since this vote was cast in Congress. Certainly, Anderson voted against arming merchant ships. But did the P.A.C. tell you that Jack Anderson favored the CONVOY instead of lone wolf fighting? And convoys are the system that did the job.

THE ISSUE . . . LEND-LEASE

The P.A.C. says . . . he was wrong!
The Voters say . . . he was RIGHT!

Here's another case where the P.A.C. goes way, way back. Right at the beginning, Congressman Anderson did vote against Lend-Lease. But did the P.A.C. tell you he had just returned from the Pacific and was not in favor of giving away the protection we needed so badly until our forward bases were fortified? Didn't Pearl Harbor, Midway, Guam and the Philippine Islands prove he was right?

THE ISSUE . . . PATMAN HOUSING BILL

The P.A.C. says . . . he was wrong!
The Voters say . . . he was RIGHT!

This is the boldest, most flagrant misstatement the P.A.C. has made. Jack Anderson didn't vote against this bill. He voted for it. Is the P.A.C. trying to confuse the public by bringing up the amendment for 600 million dollars that was rushed to the floor two hours after the bill had been taken up for consideration? When Mr. Wyatt was asked, "Is this for the Veteran," he said "No." When asked what it was for, he said he "didn't" know, but he was sure he would need it. Jack Anderson says, "When Mr. Wyatt or his successor needs money to facilitate the veteran building program and knows what he needs it for, he shall have my wholehearted support."

THE ISSUE - - - FARM SUBSIDIES

The P.A.C. says . . . he was wrong!
The Voters say . . . he was RIGHT!

Does the P.A.C. know that for every dollar paid in subsidies it is necessary for the little taxpayer to pay approximately $5 before the farmer gets his money? Jack Anderson believes in economical, efficient government. Direct pricing is the sound way of marketing agricultural products.

IT ALL BOILS DOWN TO THIS . . .

Each one of these votes that the P.A.C. terms as very, very bad is a sound vote, once the facts are known. But the P.A.C. doesn't want you to know the facts. It wants you to believe half truths and deliberate misstatements. In short, it wants YOUR SEAT in Congress.

There is one way to say YOU DON'T LIKE HAVING THE P.A.C. BELITTLE YOUR INTELLIGENCE. That is to reelect Congressman Jack Anderson on June 4 by an overwhelming majority.

Let's return Jack Z.

ANDERSON TO CONGRESS

on his 99% record . . . with a record vote!

Former Campbell Man Takes Bride

The many Campbell friends of Clyde Q. Allen, a former resident, will be interested to learn of his marriage to Miss Dorothy Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Barlow of Dumont, Iowa, last Saturday evening at the Calvary Methodist church in San Jose.

Officiating at the candlelight ceremony was the Rev. James H. Strayer. The bride wore the traditional white satin wedding gown and carried American Beauty roses. Her matron of honor was Mrs. Charles Jones, and best man at the rites was James DeVaghn. The benedict's brother, Loren Allen, served as usher. The church was decorated for the occasion with baskets of white stalk and baby breath. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors.

Present for the wedding was the bride's mother, Mrs. S. G. Barlow, who flew West from her Iowa home to attend.

The new Mrs. Allen is a former stewardess for T. W. A., and the bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Allen, of San Jose, is a recently discharged Army lieutenant who has just returned from overseas service.

After June 1 the young couple will be at home in their new home at 28 Powell St., San Mateo.

Man Found in Vacant Lot

A man found dead in a San Jose vacant lot near Market and Post Sts. last week was identified by both a tavern proprietor and a County Hospital doctor as Henry Brady, 56, Route 1, of Campbell. Results of an autopsy ordered by Deputy Coroner Tom Kilmartin revealed the cause of death as chronic alcoholism.

Hornbuckle Wants Efficient Agency

A modern, efficient law enforcement agency throughout the entire Santa Clara County is the goal of Howard F. Hornbuckle, candidate for sheriff at the June 4 primary election, he revealed this week at a Hornbuckle for Sheriff public metting in San Jose.

Hornbuckle said he favors a 24-hour police representation of the county, indicating the particular need for cooperation with and protection of all rural school areas. He also stressed the need for close cooperation between the sheriff's office and all other county law enforcement groups.

Hornbuckle, a graduate of both the FBI national academy, Washington, D. C., and the San Jose State College police school, will require the sheriff's office to maintain close liaison with State and Federal law bodies.

"In an attempt to professionalize police work I shall urge the formation of a county-wide inservvice-training program for law officers," Hornbuckle told the gathering. "Youth protection and guidance will be an integral part of any such training course," he added.

Hornbuckle emphasized the necessity of cooperation with minority groups, stating that difficulties would be unlikely if the proper understanding existed between the groups and law enforcement officers.

Moreland School Notes

LOUISE JACKSON, Editor

Promptly at 8:00 last Saturday morning the seventh and eighth grades of Moreland school left on their anual graduation trip; this time to Santa Cruz. We arrived at Sea Cliff Park about 9:30 without any incidents, other than a flat tire on one of the cars.

Upon reaching the park the students engaged in various activities, swimming, football, playing games, visiting the concrete boat, until 11 o'clock, when we had a wiener roast and ate lunch. Then we left for the Casino. There the students swam in the plunge, visited the various concessions and had a lot of fun.

We left for home at about 4:00 o'clock after taking some pictures. The trip was partly financed by the Moreland PTA, who supplied the food and gave each pupil some money for the concessions and prizes for winning the various games.

Camp Fire Girls

Last Friday the Ocawasin group had a lot of fun looking for "buried treasure".

The treasure and clues were laid by Patty Powell, with the assistance of the guardian, Mrs. Richardson. This is a requirement for the firemakers rank for which Patty is working.

Two teams searched for the treasure. The Reds, led by Verna Jean Miller, and the Yellows, led by Shirley McCallister.

The clues were written in poetry form on red and yellow paper. After much excitement Janet Applegard, a Red, found the treasure. It was a bag of candy. The Reds shared it with the Yellows.

During the meeting the camp registration slips were passed out. Most of the girls plan to go.

All of the girls had a very nice time.

No Change in This Office Since 1927

Sheriff Walter GASPAR Says—

"I want a man in the Sheriff's office trained by the FBI National Academy at Washington, D. C. At the moment the office doesn't have a single man trained by the FBI. Such training would be invaluable in instructing other members of the department in FBI methods."

Such was the statement made by Sheriff Walter Gaspar, NOT a candidate for election to office at the June 4 primary, to the Board of Supervisors this week.

HOWARD HORNBUCKLE is the ONLY candidate for Sheriff who has been TRAINED by the FBI at Washington, D. C.

HOWARD HORNBUCKLE combines this training with a degree from the San Jose State College Police School, 14 years a member of the San Jose Police Department in which he obtained the rank of captaincy, and ample experience in his own business.

HOWARD HORNBUCKLE HAS the training which Sheriff Gaspar says "would be invaluable. . . ."

The Book Mark

General Eisenhower wasn't worried about the battle of the Bulge until he read the newspaper stories—two weeks later. His chief annoyance was that he had to be a virtual prisoner of his own security police, with guards carrying machine guns surrounding his house in Versailles, and armed guards in jeeps proceeding and following him whenever he went out. A group of English-speaking Germans had infiltrated through American lines in American uniforms, driving an American jeep and carrying American identification papers, with the mission of killing the Supreme Commander.

This is just one of the thousands of items in the backstage history of World War II, which Capt. Harry Butcher, naval aide to Eisenhower, has recorded in his book "My Three Years With Eisenhower." Butcher shared his chief's quarters and adventures and daily life from the gloomy summer of 1942 to the final victory. His book, gleaned from his day-to-day diary, is the current Book-of-the-Month Club selection.

Butcher's friendship with Eisenhower dates back 19 years, when "Ike" was a Major stationed at Ft. Benning. The Captain himself was a radio executive before the war. General manager for CBS in Washington, and later a vice-president, he coined the phrase "fireside chat" for President Roosevelt's broadcasts, and was responsible for the first broadcast from inside Congress. But he takes most pride in having helped such now famous newscasters as Bob Trout, Arthur Godfrey, Warren Sweeney and John Daly to break into radio.

Now, with what he calls his "first and last book" a best-seller, he is back in radio again. This time he hopes it will be his own station in Santa Barbara, Calif. "After all," he says, "I am basically a radio man. Don't forget, one of my most pleasant special assignments as aide to General 'Ike' was helping to set up communications for press and radio in France after the fall of Paris."

Local Candidates And What They Say

In justice to myself, perhaps I should say a little about my own record as Justice of the Peace of Campbell Township.

Astounding as it sounds, in five terms of office I have not had a single reversal of judgment on appeal to the Superior Court.

Astonishing as it sounds, in five terms of office not a single defendant charged with a felony that I have held to answer to the Superior Court has failed to be convicted there or else to plead guilty.

Astonishing as it sounds, in five terms of office I have not been absent from my post for a single full day.

Friends sometimes ask what my middle initial stands for. Just for fun, but in justice to my habits, suppose you call me John Dependableness Blaine.

JOHN D. BLAINE,
Campbell Township Justice.

Mrs. Smith Entertains Horizon Club

By ANN ENDERTON

Monday night the Horizon Club enjoyed their pleasantest social event of the season when Mrs. Stanley Smith entertained them with a formal dinner in honor of the birthday of her daughter, Lois. The girls sat down to the hospitable Smith table decorated with Cecil Brunner roses, but the flowers got scant attention from that moment on. The menu was voted "out of the world" from the frosted gingerale fruit cocktail to the homemade cake and the ice cream smothered with strawberries.

Among those who asked for second helpings were: Marilyn Ott, Jeanne Currie, Jean Smith, Marian Page, Regina Smith, Betty Larkin, Florence Phillips, Ann Enderton, Joanne Parr, Patty Hoyt, Jeanette Gomes, Margaret Hengestebeck, Philippa Hengestebeck, Jean Jensen, Lois Smith, and Mrs. Herbert B. Enderton, adviser.

After dinner the girls met in the living room for an informal hour of music, dancing, and fun.

Poppy Day, Friday, May 24

Organization of the corps of volunteers who will distribute memorial poppies here on Poppy Day, May 24, has been completed, Clara Fagalde, poppy chairman of Campbell Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, has announced.

The corps is composed of members of the auxiliary, both senior and junior. Carrying baskets of poppies, made by disabled veterans of both World Wars at Palo Alto Veterans' Hospital, they will be on the streets early in the morning of Poppy Day and will continue to offer the flowers, to be worn in honor of the war dead, throughout the day.

In return for the poppies, the Poppy Day workers will receive contributions to the American Legion Auxiliary's welfare and rehabilitation funds. The money will be used to aid disabled veterans of both wars to assist families of veterans found in need. The bulk of the money will remain in the Campbell Unit, to be expended in the work of the local Legion Post and Auxiliary Unit.

The disabled veterans who make the poppies are the only persons receiving any pay in the Auxiliary's poppy program. All of the women, distributing the poppies, donate their services for the day, and every penny of the money contributed, goes for the benefit of the disabled men and needy families of veterans.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The Campbell Union Grammar School is now faced with a serious problem due to the present extremely crowded conditions and the further prospect of having to find room for many more children in the next few years because of the phenominal growth of the community. We have in this district some of the finest residential property in the whole state and it is very rapidly being taken up by people interested in the pleasant life possible in the Santa Clara Valley.

When the present Grammar School was built in 1922 it represented the last word in modern school construction and was probably one of the most important reasons for the rapid growth of the community together with the resulting fine increase in property values. Good schools will do more than any one other thing to make a community a desirable one in which to live. During the past 24 years able leadership, a modern school plant and fine community spirit has kept the very best in educational facilities available to the children of this district. Today, however, the district must look not to its past achievements to measure its success but rather to its plans for the future. In the light of present conditions and future demands let us look at our existing educational facilities.

A visit to the school should convince anyone of the dire need for more room. The writer has made it a point to make just such a visit and learn at first hand just what the condition is. First I visited the new addition with its six modern class rooms which have everything that any parent could desire in the way of modern facilities. This fine addition is a tribute to the wisdom and the good judgment of the members of the School Board who were responsible for its construction. Then I took a tour through the older parts of the school and was amazed to find such terrific conditious due to overcrowding. Class rooms that were modern and the pride of the district 24 years ago have now been divided in half by a partition and made into two small rooms each of which must accommodate as many pupils as the whole did when it was built! Then to top all of this I found that classes were being conducted on the stage of the auditorium and have even been conducted in the hallways! This is the picture of our modern school plant today that the district was so proud of 24 years ago. The solution is obvious—we must do some more building. We have fortunately, a progressive School Board who recognizing this problem have evolved a plan with the help of real experts which will keep our School District at the top for many years to come. This plan for new buildings deserves the prudent consideration of all who live in the district.

The new plan briefly will give us two new schools, located one in the north and one in the south of the district. This plan will relieve immediately the congested conditions in the down town school and will provide the additional school facilities where they are going to be needed in the future, and where they can better serve the community.

I have observed no opposition to the point that we need more school facilities, but I have observed some objection to building these schools in the outlying parts of the district. In this connection I, as a resident of the north end of the district would like to say a little in answer to statements made by Mr. S. N. Hedegard through the columns of your paper. The fear seems to be prevalent among those who oppose the bond issue on this ground that the outlying districts might secede some time in the future, attaching themselves to some larger metropolitan area and thus build a school of their own. Let me point out that the present Campbell school was made possible by the consolidation of these outlying districts with the Campbell District. The outlying districts thus contributed their proportionate share to the building and maintenance of the present school and will continue to contribute their share toward any new schools that may be built. It is also extremely doubtful if any move to attach these outlying districts to any metropolitan district would meet with very great support. The point to consider is this — the present Campbell school was made possible by consolidation of three old school districts, which is certainly in line with the modern trend. The school was built and is maintained by the district as a whole and is thus as important to one part of the district as it is to any other part. It is by continuing this cooperative spirit—the spirit that made the school possible in the beginning—that we are going to be able to expand and improve this school to keep step with the growing community. Let's not talk of division when through cooperation we can achieve great things. The present situation is a challenge. Let's accept it and go forward to bigger and better things in the future.

A vote for the Campbell School Bonds is a vote for progress. Let's get out and show our elected School Board that we are with them by giving them the necessary funds to carry on their good work.

Yours very truly,
EDWIN C. VAN DE MARK,
557 Irving Avenue.

Editor:

I have made an extensive survey of the school bonds question, and although I fully agree that it is necessary to provide additional accommodations in our grammar school, I strongly object to the manner in which the school authorities are p roceeding.

Why does the school board expect us to provide so much money for building without informing us as to how the money is to be spent? I am certain no business man would consider such a proposition, but would insist upon knowing the probable location, and also what type of building would be erected. He would also want to know whether the proposed new schools would meet the requirements for some considerable period.

It is proposed to erect one school near Burbank. Would parents wish to have their children attend a school outside the fire district, and thus having no fire protection? Also, the proposed district is outside the sanitary district. Surely this should be considered.

The school authorities admit that in less than two years other schools would have to be built in Campbell to take care of the increasing population. Therefore it appears as though we are to have much greater expense without the maximum results.

In my opinion the school authorities are endeavoring to rush the plan without giving taxpayers the opportunity to learn the truth.

No harm can be done in postponing the question and killing the bonds until we are satisfied that no better scheme can be provided.

We are anxious to provide the best for our children, but we also want to spend only that money which will ensure the best results at the least possible expense.

Let us have the truth placed before us without reservation and I am certain all the money necessary will be provided.

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

As election day comes closer to vote on the Grammar School bonds, nearly everyone feels that we need more classrooms for the children of the district. The only point at issue is where to put those classrooms. Should we add to our present school or should we build those two schools as recommended by the school board?

I firmly believe that our present school is already larger than it should be, and any further additions to it would be a detriment to the welfare of the children in the school.

The two proposed schools would be large enough to be efficient units of the Campbell School district, and the parents near the schools would have much more interest in them than they have at the present time in our big school. These schools would help keep our present system unified.

The welfare of the children requires the new schools and for that reason the bonds should be voted.

JOSEPH V. GOMES.

Editor:

The main issue in the new expansion program of the Campbell Union Elementary School District is that of the welfare of the children in the primary grades. Issues of school architecture, of past policy, of pride in large centralized enrollment, of future annexations, and of unutilized school property are all issues of secondary importance. The welfare of the child should be our first concern.

By de-centralizing the primary grades in the school district a distinct good is accomplished for the pupil. The younger children need a sense of security which comes from the smaller school unit, and which is lost in the large groupings of centralized units.

In the smaller schools the primary child can receive more individual attention. The activities of the school are geared into his way of thinking and acting, and he is not submerged by the activities of the upper grades.

The highly desirable qualities of leadership and initiative are more easily developed in a school where the primary children are by themselves. They can take their places of leadership in their own school, which is denied them in a large school where all the grades are represented.

A primary child is at a disadvantage when he is brought into the noise, competition, and confusion of 1300 to 1800 pupils of all grades. His place should be with pupils of his own age, in a school separate from the large group, and in an atmosphere to develop his own traits of leadership and initiative.

The proposal to have two separated primary schools is to the advantage of the child.

LAWRENCE J. OSBORNE.

Committee Endorses Patterson

Members of the Democratic central committee of San Joaquin County endorsed the candidacy of Representative Ellis E. Patterson for the United States Senate.

In a telegram sent from Stockton following the meeting and received by William H. Hollander, Northern California c a m paign chairman for Patterson, F. O. Burton, chairman of the committee and San Joaquin County chairman of the Patterson for the Senate campaign, said: "Patterson's long record as sponsor of and fighter for progressive legislation for all the people leaves no alternative. We endorse Ellis E. Patterson and will work for his election."

Upon receipt of this latest endorsement, Hollander said that, throughout the State, Patterson who is candidate on both the Republican and Democratic tickets in the June 4 primaries is now well ahead of all opponents in the matter of Democratic central committee endorsements.

"And there are still many more to come," Hollander promised.

Paul Becker Addresses Teachers

At the last monthly meeting of the Campbell Elementary school teachers, Paul Becker, vice-principal, told of his experiences in the Army while in Europe.

Urge Traffic Studies For New Bay Crossing

In selecting the location for a second trans-bay crossing, now under study as authorized by the California Toll Bridge Authority, full consideration should be given to traffic origin and destination studies, so that the greatest number of motorists may be served by the proposed facility, in the opinion of the board of directors of the California State Automobile Association.

The automobile association directors also took the position that in the event the proposed new bay crossing provides transportation facilities other than for motor vehicles, the cost of providing such additional transportation facilities should not be imposed on motor vehicle owners.

The motoring public, it was pointed out, is vitally interested in the location and construction of an additional bay crossing which will best serve the interests of the vast majority of car owners who have occasion to cross frequently from one side of the bay to the other. The association directors urged that the traffic study and subsequent recommendations should give full consideration to the traffic requirements which justify the construction of a second bay crossing.

Endertons Awaiting Word From Army Transportation Corps

Mrs. H. B. Enderton who, with her children, plans to join her husband, Col. Enderton is already settling in the home they will occupy in Amburg, which is near Nuremburg.

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for May 26th, with the Golden Text from I Corinthians: "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" (3:16).

Veterans Weekly News Column

Veterans Administration officials estimate four out of five veterans' widows who are suddenly faced with the necessity of filing claims for pensions find themselves unable to lay hands immediately upon copies of public records necessary to establish the claims.

One of the most important steps a married veteran or serviceman can take to protect his wife and children in case of his death is to place on file a certified copy of the public record of marrige, together with complete certified records of any previous marriages of himself and wife. Copies of birth certificates of any children should also be obtained.

Many a tragic delay in settling the pension claim of a veteran's widow has resulted because the widow or her dead husband had been married previously and adequate proof of the dissolution of that marriage was produced only after a long and painful search.

There is the case of an Army officer who was killed in the Pacific. His widow filed a claim for pesion with the Veterans Administration. The officer's army record showed he had been married before to another woman, but there was no indication the marriage had been dissolved.

Before the widow's claim can be settled, the VA must trace down the facts of that previous marriage to make sure it was dissolved and the widow was legally the officer's wife at the time of his death. This may mean searching the records in each county in which the officer lived during his first marriage.

Veterans and servicemen owe it to their loved ones to insure that necessary records are readily available in case of death.

Question: What supporting evidence must be furnished by a widow or child in order to claim death pensions?

Answer: Proof of legal relationship of widow (marriage and dissolution of prior marriages of both spouses) and proof of legal relationship of child or acknowledgment of child by veteran.

Question: May death pension be paid to a widow who has remarried?

Answer: No. She loses all status as a widow of her previous husband upon remarriage.

Question: Why is it necessary to submit proof of legal relationship when this evidence was on my husband's military service records?

Answer: The statement on military records is not considered sufficient evidence for a court of law. No investigation is made by the military of legality of the marriage or legal dissolution of previous marriages, either of yourself or your husband. These facts must be established by authenticated copies of public records.

Growers Urge Eating of Grapefruit

A new twist to the good neighbod policy was brought into effect recently by California growers of desert grapefruit to put into the consumer market an abundant crop of nearly three million boxes of grapefruit.

California growers issued an appeal to consumers in Washington, Utah, Oregon, Nevada, Colorado and New Mexico, to be a "good neighbor" and increase their consumption of grapefruit to avoid any possibility of waste.

"Waste at this time, when millions are starving abroad, would be a public scandal, the growers said, "and because our grapefruit is maturing early this year, it must be consumed within the next few weeks to avoid any possibility of waste."

An earlier appeal to marketing agencies through the 11 Western States brought prompt action from Western retailers. Food and non-food chain store associations in the Western States pledged all-out support of an emergency farmer-consumer sales campaign, May 1-11, and independent retail grocers associations agreed to "do all within their power" to encourage consumers to buy more grapefruit during this period.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture in Washington, upon the strength of the appeal issued directives to production and marketing directors in the Western States, to give full support to the promotion of grapefruit. President Truman's Famine Emergency Committees in the Western States are urging consumers to eat grapefruit, which is in abundance, and cut down on less plentiful foods, for the sake of the world's starving millions.

The growers pointed out in their appeal that they had come to the aid of neighboring States' farmers when there had been difficulty in disposing of their abundant crops, and that they were now making an appeal for similar consideration.

Operations "Crossroads"

Tongue-twisters will be no problem for scientists and Navy gold braid at the atomic bomb test in July. All of the islands in the Bikin Atoll with virtually unpronounceable names have been given code designations which are brief and simple. Under the system the island of Bokoaetokutoku becomes "Boku", Romurikku becomes "Romuk", etc. The new names, which are similar to wartime voice calls, will facilitate communications during the Crossroads Operations.

Anticipating large numbers of transient officers connected with the coming atomic bomb test, the American Women's Volunteer Services has announced plans for expanding facilities of the Officers' Club at San Francisco's Fairmont Hotel. Operated on a non-profit basis, the club has an average attendance of 1100 officers each Saturday night.

Eighteen Navy fire fighting teams will be poised for action during the atomic bomb tests at Bikini, Advance Joint Army-Navy Task Force One announced this week. The teams have been training at Pearl Harbor.

Becker Speaks at Kiwanis Club

At the Campbell Kiwanis meeting, May 21, Paul Becker gave an interesting talk on the beginning of the American occupation of Germany and exhibited some of the souvenirs that he brought back with him. Due to the fact that there was not sufficient time to complete his talk Becker accepted an invitation to continue next week. Political aspirants present, who had taken up Paul's alloted time, were fined unmercifully, it was reported.

Visitors from San Jose club were Joe McKinnon, Bert Rudolph and Elmer Pine. Eric Erickson came over from the Los Gatos club and the high school student guest was Miss Dianna Musset.

On Wednesday evening, May 16, 16 Kiwanians and their guests met with the San Lorenzo Valley club at Hotel Dickinson in Ben Lomond.

Box Office Reporter

This weekend the attraction at the Campbell Theater is "Paris-Underground."

Etta Shibet's best-seller in which the writer related her experiences in aiding Allied aviators shot down over France to elude the occupying Nazis and return to duty has undergone a few changes and a lengthening period as filmed by Constance Bennett in her debut as a producer, but it is essentially the same story dealing with the same tremendously important phases of the Nazi occupation of France.

In common with the Shiber book the picture opens with the Germans approaching Paris and with the principal characters, an American woman and an English woman, unable to escape. They are treated thereafter as neutrals and utilize the limited liberty thus available to them as a cover for operations in which they smuggle some 259 Allied fliers out of France. The picture goes on to show their detection and subsequent imprisonment, and on beyond that to show their rescue by the Allied forces when Paris is retaken.

Miss Bennett and Gracie Fields portray the American woman and the English woman respectively, and the cast at large is competent under the studied direction of Gregory Ratoff.

Committees were appointed and plans completed for the teachers' reception slated for June 5 on the high school square.

Upon adjournment refreshments were served on the lawn by the hostess, Mrs. Raymond Flagg.
